

1. Stacy is typically a shy and resolute person; however, when her friends start a food fight in the cafeteria, Stacy jumps in and loses her inhibitions acting defiantly, Stacy's unusual behavior is attributed to what group psychology principle?

---

---

---

2. While working on a class group project Darius felt as though he did not have to work as hard as he would alone because the presence of his other group members. This behavior is attributed to what?

---

---

---

3. At changing of the chairs practice the junior and senior class had to rehearse several times due to their inability to "get it right." When students left the seniors blamed the juniors saying they were "aloof and immature," while the juniors blamed the seniors saying the "juniors were the only ones listening." This is representative of what regarding prejudice?

---

---

---

4. After Ms. Cooper received help from her friends moving into her new apartment, she felt like she should buy them dinner. This is representative of?

---

---

---

5. Often times when in-groups get together, they discuss issues and become more solidified or extreme in their stance. This is called?

---

---

---

6. Devon was robbed around several people at the grocery store. One person admitted to seeing the incident but not reporting because they thought someone else had called already. This phenomenon is known as?

---

---

---

7. The hostilities between two racial subgroups of a riverfront community were dramatically reduced when the threat of their river flooding its banks required that they work together to save their town. This best illustrates the impact of:

---

---

---

8. Lindsey did not get sleep the night before school because her parents were fighting, when she got to school she fell asleep in all her classes. Her teachers were overheard stating that she was being lazy. This situation is most likely a result of?

---

---

---

9. Kaya is running for student class vice president and wants people to vote for her. When she interacts with friends she offers them a button, if they accept the button she asks them next to work on her campaign, if they agree to work on her campaign, she tells them to ask their family and friends for votes. Kaya is using what technique?

---

---

---

10. Terrell was grounded but snuck out of his house and went to a party. While at the party, Terrell's car was stolen. When Terrell was looking for sympathy, others responded by saying he deserved what happened and if he had been at home it wouldn't have. This best explains what concept?

---

---

---

11. Long distance is considered to be one of the five factors of attraction.

- A True
- B False

12. In Stanley Milgram's experiment, people who had respect for authority were less likely to initiate shocks to the highest voltage.

- A True
- B False

13. Timothy's teacher told him that he will never pass his AP Physics class. As a result Timothy started to believe those negative comments and did not study or turn in his class work. Timothy who was usually a good student stated that the class was just too hard, while the teacher responded by saying he knew he'd fail all along. Timothy's response to his teachers assertions about his ability to perform is a representation of what?

---

---

---

14. Which of the following is the most complete definition of conformity?

- A Sharing a mood with others.
- B unconsciously mimicking the behaviors and reactions of others.
- C changing thoughts about a situation in order to please an authority figure.
- D adjusting our behavior or thinking toward some group standard.

15. When a person performs well learned tasks more effectively in the presence of others and not well learned task worse in front of others this is known as?

---

---

---